DIRECTOR'S DESK

The 2023-2024 is an unprecedented year of opportunities materialised in shape of new collaborations with SIDBI, TDH and Desai Foundation in mid of challenges and hardships being the other side of the picture.

I am extremely thankful to the funders, partners & collaborators who have shown faith in our team and work. Their faith acted as a source of inspiration for our path, innovations, and ideas which strengthened us to extend our capacities to innovate, rediscover the ways, and design strategies to work for the prosperity of marginalized communities. I also extend gratitude to the Government officials across the departments, who provided cooperation, appreciation, and feedback in our various initiatives to reach the ground in a better way.

I am also immensely thankful to my Safe Society team members who place their invaluable efforts to make the organization reach new heights. The team members made us proud on various platforms and gained recognition for our organization.

Various important events were held this year which enhanced the journey of Safe Society like the starting of the yearly event SAMAGAM and Junior RJ Star, booklet launch on women entrepreneurship development, and celebration of various national/international days along with foundation day and ahead of all Award by Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath ji to our children. Various milestone was also achieved in this year like start of the SHWET experience center, getting membership of Catalyst 2030, the inclusion of Safe Society in the Gender Leadership Programme 2030., the launch of our new website, enhancement of followers in social media, highlighting my story by HOV and invitation from various platform as a speaker including Bharat tex.

Positive change in the lives of children, women, and other vulnerable groups is our motivating factor to move forward in the journey. I am grateful to all people directly or indirectly associated with us, their enthusiasm has made us stand up and move forward.

We are highly optimistic about our future efforts for children, women, and other disadvantaged sections of society while moving forward with our new initiative of the child resource center.

- Mr. Vishwa Vaibhav Sharma
Founder & Director, Safe Society

ABOUT SAFE SOCIETY

Safe Society is a non-profit organization that is working to improve the Socio-Economic standards of the most underserved populations including Women, Children, and Communities in Uttar Pradesh, Bihar, Delhi, Punjab, Jharkhand, and Madhya Pradesh since 2005 in four thematic areas.

Safe Society was founded with the noble mission of advancing Mahatma Gandhi's vision of 'GRAM SWARAJ,' emphasizing the pivotal role of the Indian village economy in the holistic development of the nation.

We are also leading NACG-EVAC - UP Chapter (National Action & Coordination Group For Ending Violence Against Children, India) and guiding 70+ NGO across 7 districts.

“Empowering the marginalized”

◀◀◀ OUR VISION

Our vision is to create a society where even the poorest communities have equal access to significant opportunities, regardless of their social and economic backgrounds, ensuring they are recognized and empowered as visible members of our society

OUR MISSION ▶▶▶

To empower marginalized children, youth, women through relevant education, healthcare and livelihood programmes through best possible methodologies.

OUR ONGOING PROJECTS

BAL SRIJAN PROJECT

VISION

- To transform the lives of vulnerable children from marginalized communities, fostering their education, health, and holistic development.
- We strive to create a nurturing environment where every child can thrive, receive quality education, and have access to opportunities that foster their growth, health, and well-being.

PROJECT OVERVIEW

- Providing basic education and facilitating their enrollment in mainstream schools.
- Bridging the gap between the children and government schemes designed for their benefit.
- Supporting mothers' groups to enhance child-rearing practices.
- Focusing on the mental and emotional well-being of children through art-based therapy.
- Addressing nutritional needs to ensure healthy development.
- Offering coaching and engaging learning activities that make education enjoyable.
- Ensuring children receive necessary immunizations for their physical health.
- Building confidence and imparting valuable life skills.
- Enhancing sports abilities to promote physical fitness and teamwork.

ANTYODYA MODEL

The Antyodya Model is our cornerstone philosophy, which translates to 'uplifting the most underprivileged'. It is a holistic framework that:

- Welcomes children from the most deprived sections of society into a supportive educational setting.
- Acts as a conduit for these children to access mainstream educational institutions and societal benefits.
- Employs innovative and therapeutic methods like art therapy to nurture the children's emotional resilience.
- Creates a supportive ecosystem involving parents, especially mothers, to ensure a conducive environment for the children's growth at home.
- Emphasizes the importance of nutrition, health, and well-being as foundational to the children's development.
- Encourages skill development and confidence-building through various extracurricular activities, including sports, to prepare them for a brighter future.

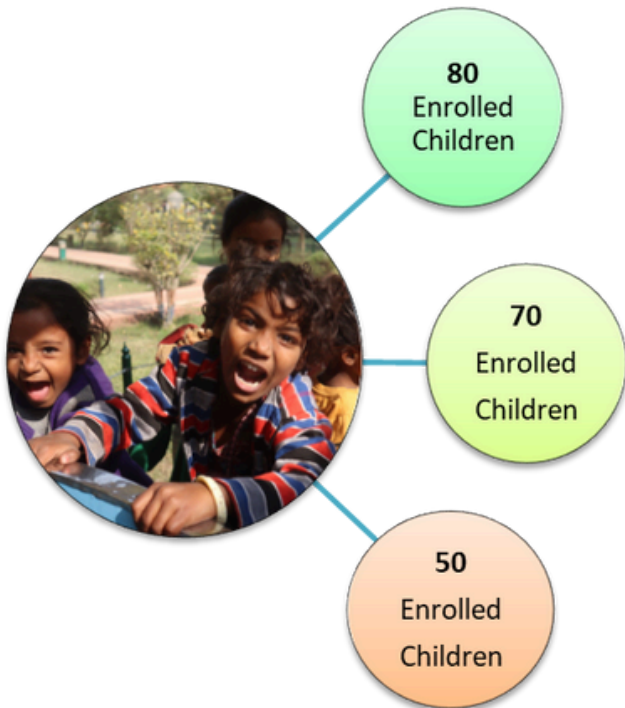

BAL GURUKUL

At these Gurukuls, first generation school going children between 8-14 years of age gets after school tuitions. Putting some extra efforts into curriculum helps in making a strong hold in all the subjects and thus they sustain their formal school education.

- Notable reduction in stigma and increased support from male community members

TESTIMONIALS FROM BENEFICIARIES

Chanda, Bal Srijan Project

Chanda used to be a girl who came to Antyodaya, but she stopped coming in between because her mother used to take her for begging. The team from Safe Society convinced her mother, understanding Chanda's deteriorating physical and mental condition. After understanding her situation, her mother stopped taking her for begging and started sending Chanda to Antyodaya, where activities like SEL (Social Emotional Learning) and ABP (Activity-Based Learning) are conducted. Now, Chanda is very happy as she actively participates in SEL and ABP activities, helping children and keeping an eye on our Antyodaya.

Saroj, PAHAL Project

Saroj, Pad Post In charge from Ghaila, says that times are changing. When I joined Safe Society and started working as a Pad Post In charge, I used to hesitate to speak about buying pads to women myself. It was through continuous meetings and training sessions that I gained a better understanding of the issue, and that's when I became comfortable with this subject. Now, I sell 50-60 pads per month, and instead of going door-to-door, people come to my house. Even men come to buy pads for their wives. I have raised much awareness among women. I have become recognized in my village, which feels good to see. Thank you, Safe Society.

Baby, Health , Skill & Development Project

Baby, a 28-year-old resident of Raitha village near Lucknow, visited the Baby Camp with her 5-month-old daughter Avni, who has persistent colds. Despite previous doctor visits, there was no improvement. At the Safe Society and Desai Foundation camp, the doctor provided free medicine and advice, greatly benefiting villagers like Baby. Such initiatives are crucial for remote areas, where healthcare access is limited and medicine costs are high. Baby expressed heartfelt gratitude for the support received.

Sheela, Livelihood Project

I am committed to nurturing this goat not just for myself but for the prosperity it promises. Together, we are building not just livelihoods, but dreams. Thank you, Fusion and Safe Society, for making this difference in my life.

'Women play key role in societal change'

Lucknow: No society can grow unless women play the lead role in it, BJP mahila morcha chief Geeta Shukya said while addressing a programme to celebrate International Women's Day. "Any change in context of India is impossible till rural women join the cause. Educational and financial empowerment of women is the key to achieve this goal and the BJP govts are committed to uplift of women in society. We just don't make claims, we turn them into reality as well," she said. Interactive games, activities and song and dance programmes were organized during the event to emphasize on the message of women empowerment. A health awareness and free medical check up camp was also organised. TNN
